

JIM MULVEY, PAST-PRESIDENT

Raised in Maryland, did twenty years in New York and was released to the Gulf Coast of Florida for good behavior. Jim is the Director of Development with RE/MAX Palm Realty. He became a permanent resident of Florida in 2013, joined the board in 2014, was the VABR Realtor of the Year in 2020, the President's Award recipient in 2022 and VABR President in 2023. Jim is a Major RPAC contributor, participates in GARD, is a Florida Realtors Director, has served in both mediator and ombudsman processes, and participates in association fundraising and activities.

Jim is the 2024 Florida Realtors District 13 Vice President and serves on the Business Issues Policy Committee with NAR. He maintains a secondary membership with the Realtor Association of Sarasota and Manatee Counties and served as a Grievance Committee member and Florida Director.

Prior to his real estate career, Jim was in McDonald's Logistics and jokes he made sure the Happy Meal Toys got to where they were supposed to be. He was also involved in supporting the Ronald McDonald Houses of the Greater New York Metro area. He has three adult children and four grands. In all his spare time, he enjoys what Florida has to offer.

Jim Mulvey is a licensed Realtor® with RE/MAX Palm Realty, 1808 Tamiami Trail D2, Port Charlotte, FL 33948.
