

MARK SORAVILLA, VICE-PRESIDENT

A true native to the area Mark Soravilla was born locally here in Venice Hospital, currently residing where he was raised in Englewood along with his amazing wife, two sons and daughter. The love for the area fuels his passion for the real estate industry and is why he is extremely honored to serve the community in any capacity that he is able. He received his college education in Orlando at the University of Central Florida earning a Bachelors of Science in Marketing in addition to his real estate/mortgage brokers licenses. Serving SWFL since 2005, Mark is the broker owner of RE/MAX Palm Realty with focus on maintaining an exceptional level of professionalism, customer service, growth and community involvement while remaining rooted in a people first environment. He is an active member with the Venice Area Board of Realtors currently serving as a Director and previously chairing the YPN Committee as well as being on the Grievance Committee.