

JIM MULVEY, PRESIDENT

Raised in Maryland, did twenty years in New York and was released to the Gulf Coast of Florida for good behavior. Jim became a permanent resident of Florida in 2013. Jim is the Broker / Owner of NextHome Reverie. He joined the board in 2014 and was the VABR Realtor of the Year in 2020 and the President's Award recipient in 2022. Jim is a Major RPAC contributor, participates in GARD, is a Florida Realtors Director, completed both mediator and ombudsman training, and participates in association fundraising and activities. He currently serves on the Business Issues Policy Committee with NAR. He maintains a secondary membership with the Realtor Association of Sarasota and Manatee Counties and served as a Grievance Committee member.

Prior to his real estate career, Jim was in McDonald's Logistics and jokes he made sure the Happy Meal Toys got to where they were supposed to be. He was also involved in supporting the Ronald McDonald Houses of the Greater New York Metro area. He has three adult children and four grands. In all his spare time, he enjoys what Florida has to offer.

Jim Mulvey is a licensed Realtor® with NextHome Reverie, 871 Venetia Bay Blvd., Venice Florida 34285. Phone: 941-525-6558

Email: jmulveyrealestate@gmail.com