

ANDREW VOLD, VICE PRESIDENT

Andrew is a native of Fairfax County in lovely northern Virginia. As a young adult, he lived for two years on DuPont Circle in Washington DC, and then moved to Maine in 1999 to pursue a career in real estate in Kennebunk Port.

After enduring several long, cold winters in southern Maine, he decided to thaw out and relocate to southern Florida in 2003. He landed in Port Charlotte where he lives with his partner, Jon Strickland

Andrew joined Prudential Florida Realty in 2004, and opened their new location in Venice in 2005 till 2012 when he moved back to Maine for a couple years. While in Maine he received a call from Bill Watson and relocated to Orlando FL where he was Vice President/Broker for Watson Realty Wekiva After 7.5 years in Orlando Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Florida Realty offered him the Brokers job back in Venice where he is now going full circle back to where he started.

Andrew enjoys mentoring his agents, and includes large doses of humor in his management style. His diverse background, which included driving a school bus, running a customer service and complaints dept for a cable company, and flying a plane, makes him unique, to say the least.

Andrew belongs to 5 area boards, but has chosen Venice as his Primary. He has served on the Data Services Committee Finance committee.

Andrew was named 2009 Broker of the Year by The Woman's Council of Realtors, has been honored by the Presidential Who's Who in both 2009 and 2010, Strathmore's Who's Who's and holds his CRM and SFR Designations.

He looks forward to working with the Board of Directors and the Board staff in the years to come.
